

The chart displays wave height in meters over a period of ten days. A red vertical line marks the 'Now' position on Friday, 14-Nov. The forecast accuracy for each day is indicated by the color of the bars: Excellent (green), Very Good (blue), Good (purple), Poor (yellow), Noise (red), and Unknown (black). The wave height generally increases from Friday to a peak on Thursday, then decreases, with a slight increase again on Saturday and Sunday.
